ATHLETICS

Hello Moscrop Ladies! Looking for a fun, fierce, and empowering new sport? Come give rugby a try on Thursday, September 25, after school on the upper grass field! No experience needed! Bring your energy, cleats or runners, and a great attitude. Make new friends, learn new skills, and discover your inner strength. Rugby is for ALL body types and abilities — come see what you're capable of! RUGBY FLYER.jpg
Snacks will be available afterwards for some bonding! Ms. Dato

Stay Connected - Register for a Level 1 Rugby Officiating Course This Fall!
Whether you’re a former player, a coach looking to broaden your skillset, or a parent keen to support community rugby, becoming a referee is a rewarding way to stay involved in the game.
Why become a Rugby Official?

- Stay active and connected to the game.
- Give back to your community.
- Learn more about the laws and spirit of rugby.
- Access development pathways at the provincial, national, and international levels
